This BYO event offers daily relaxing to challenging paddles. Socialising is also a prime focus of the festival in encouraging you meeting new people and reliving the memories of past paddles.

There are three paddling events each day and sea kayaking workshops on offer.

Not a Sea Kayak Club member? Your temporary membership of Paddle Australia on registration means that you are insured. Insurance details are on the Paddle Australia website.

What to bring to the camp is available at <https://seakayakwa.asn.au/what-we-do/> There are private providers that offer sea kayak and equipment hire in Perth.

The camp address is 913 Frenchman Bay Road, Big Grove, Albany. Camp opens Friday 25 April at 2:00pm and closes Monday April 28 at 10:00am.

Tenting areas are spread throughout the campsite and there are gender dormitories. The kitchen/dining area is large and contains a refrigerator, a deep freeze, and gas hot water. There are gas barbecues.

Your Saturday dinner is included.

Registration is opening in March 2025 so put the event in your diary and book those leave days for this exciting event.
